GATHERING IN FAITH, DISCOVERING COMMUNITY

Vision

Enthusiasm and Love of God and Neighbor to inspire and encourage interpersonal relationships in the St. Joseph Faith Community in order that an atmosphere of sharing our faith, time, talent, treasure and hospitality will expand the Kingdom of God.

Prayer

God of all peoples, how blessed we are to gather in faith at Eucharist, for it is in Your Word and Sacrament that we discover that we are the Community called the Body of Christ.

Our St. Joseph Parish Vision is filled with enthusiasm for loving God and neighbor because Your Kingdom expands, Creator Father, in an atmosphere of interpersonal relationships.

May we the members of St. Joseph Parish continue to grow in faith during our Pastoral Planning Process, so that our Parish Vision will be fulfilled as we discover that as parish we are Community in Christ.

Amen.

Religious EducationWe Are Sorry

This week the young people of the parish preparing for Reconciliation reflected on penance and the desire to heal the hurt caused by sin. Living a life in Christ demands a continuing conversion of heart, a life of penance, with hope in God's mercy and trust in his grace. How do we as a parish share in the Paschal mystery, the great mystery of Christ's love, the mystery of mercy?

Pastor's Column

Dear Parishioners:

One of the treasured sacraments in our Catholic tradition is the Sacrament of Reconciliation. It is a treasure because it presents us with opportunities to be strengthened in goodness as we confess our sins. The grace of the Sacrament of Reconciliation is that the more we use it, the more goodness results in us.

Confessing our sins is the humble “avenue” to the growth of God’s Kingdom which is the “main street” of more consistent goodness. Our faith journey in Christ is about growing in the ways of goodness throughout our lives. Going to Confession is not difficult but it is humbling.

Let’s make a commitment to participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation sometime during this current season of Lent. If it has been a while since your last confession it’s ok. Come back to the Sacrament treasure and get ready for increased goodness in your life.

Loving you in Christ,

Fr. Terry

In 1994, The Diocese of Gary began a four year theology based program to prepare men and women as Ecclesial Ministers. Since then over 200 men and women have graduated from the program and received certificates of completion. Ecclesial Ministers are defined as lay men and women who have been prepared professionally for specific roles of service and leadership in our parishes and our diocese. The four year program includes 24 hours of theology, spiritual formation and pastoral development. This program is a prerequisite for the Deacon program.

In September of this year, 2013, a new class will begin on Tuesday evenings for men and women interested in becoming an Ecclesial Minister or a deacon. To learn more about the program two information sessions have been scheduled. One will be on Wednesday, February 27th and the second on Tuesday evening, March 5th. Both meetings will begin at 7:00pm and will be held at the Diocesan Pastoral Center, 9292 Broadway, Merrillville. The information will be the same at both meetings. If you have any questions or are in need of more information please contact Anne Verbeke at 219-769-9292, ext. 280 or be e-mail at averbeke@dcgarry.org.

TRUST

“In God We Trust” marks the currency of our nation. It should mark our lives as well. In fact, however, we hesitate to trust others, including God, absolutely. We prefer to hold our trust in reserve, fearful of being hurt or betrayed. Today’s readings remind us that Lent is a season of trust—a trust that transforms.

God makes a remarkable promise to Abraham. To receive this promise, all Abraham need do is trust. Paul tells the Philippians that they too must trust that they are the beneficiaries of God’s bountiful grace; that they are not citizens of any earthly kingdom, but citizens of heaven. These two readings invite us to hear the Gospel account of deep trust—trust that God will fulfill all promises and that Jesus’ passage will lead to transformation and new life.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

By now, many may have failed in Lenten discipline to some measure or another: the daily doughnut is simply too alluring, or a furtive puff on a cigarette irresistible. There is meaning even in the failure, though, a kind of reminder that we cannot save ourselves. Part of the power of Lent is that we do it together, and although individuals decide on different ways to keep it, it is fundamentally the same journey. We fall, we get up, we keep moving. The desire to “give something up” for Lent is an age-old impulse in the Christian heart. We get better at it over the years, and move more deeply into the meaning and message of acts of sacrifice; so there is no shame in stumbling, as long as we are not discouraged by the failure and give up. We are clearing space in our lives, after all, and some of the things we desire to give up are worth rooting out completely anyway.

What do we do with the space we have cleared out by our sacrifice? The Lenten question of giving up is balanced by the Easter question of our response to Christ’s embrace of us in love: “What are you taking on for Easter?”

Year of Faith Prayer

May this Year of Faith be a year to help
Appreciate the gift of faith, deepen my relationship with God, and strengthen my commitment to sharing faith with others.

May I recognize the face of Christ in those who are suffering, and help them along the journey of life.

May I not grow lazy in the faith.

May I be enlightened in mind, and heart
by the word of the Lord.

May I be capable of opening the hearts and minds of many to the desire of God,
and for true life, life without end.

Amen
