GATHERING IN FAITH, DISCOVERING COMMUNITY

Vision

Enthusiasm and Love of God and Neighbor to inspire and encourage interpersonal relationships in the St. Joseph Faith Community in order that an atmosphere of sharing our faith, time, talent, treasure and hospitality will expand the Kingdom of God.

Prayer

God of all peoples, how blessed we are to gather in faith at Eucharist, for it is in Your Word and Sacrament that we discover that we are the Community called the Body of Christ.

Our St. Joseph Parish Vision is filled with enthusiasm for loving God and neighbor because Your Kingdom expands, Creator Father, in an atmosphere of interpersonal relationships.

May we the members of St. Joseph Parish continue to grow in faith during our Pastoral Planning Process, so that our Parish Vision will be fulfilled as we discover that as parish we are Community in Christ.

Amen.

Hospital & Nursing Home Visits

In this day and age, privacy within the Hospital and Nursing Home industry is a high priority. As a result, notification of churches about parishioners who are in a Hospital or Nursing Home is left up to the family or friend of the patient. Please call 219-865-2271 to let us know here at the Parish Office if you or your loved one is in a Hospital or Nursing Home. Also let us know if they would like their name published in the bulletin to be prayed for by the parishioners.

Thank You.

This series will offer education in understanding what grief is in a supportive environment. For more information or to register, please call Joe Faulstich at 663-2201.

Pastor's Column

Dear Parishioners:

People tend to enjoy the sensational, the thrilling, something new and exciting. As if we are vigilantly looking for something more and more to finally satisfy us. It seems to be a never-ending search for that something more. And when it comes to Jesus, we may project this wanting more and more out of Jesus when the faith fact is that Jesus is our constant fulfillment now. This is the result of Jesus' death and resurrection and how his risen peace lives within us at all times. Specifically, Jesus lives within us in the silence. Yup, we need to ponder in silence Jesus' all-consuming presence. He encompasses all sensations, thrills, newness and excitement. Jesus' grace-filled presence is sufficient for all the "more and more" in our daily desires.

As for proof of this, we need to enter the silence within us; it's there but we need to let go of trying to monitor the silence. Simply be in the silence and observe how present Jesus is to us in our every moment. Nothing is missing in our lives where our depths are filled with Jesus' constant presence. Only the silence of faith in Christ crucified and risen is our inner peace. And when we live inner peace in Christ, our lives simplify in Christ's eternal abundance within us.

In Christ's Sufficiency,

Fr. Terry

THE PATH TO FREEDOM

Most of us, if we were asked "Does the phrase 'the Ten Commandments' appear in the Bible?" would likely get it wrong, because the answer is "no." "The Ten Commandments" is a post-biblical phrase that developed along with an image of God as police officer that is not found in today's passage from Exodus.

The first phrase is the key: God is the one who brings us out of slavery; following God's law or commands is our path to freedom. The moneychangers whom Jesus drove from the temple were not explicitly breaking any of the commandments, but neither were they helping people to find God's path to freedom as they came to worship at the temple. This is an important Lenten lesson for us. We need to stop asking ourselves whether or not we are breaking specific rules or regulations and instead examine our lives to see if we are truly following a path to God's freedom through Christ.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Participating in Lent, we are engaging in patterns that have endured across the centuries. From very early times, we have the sense of accompanying the elect on their journey to the font. From as long ago as the fourth century, we receive Lent as forty days to shake the dust from our spirituality and reorder our conduct. Then, fasting was not seen as a strict duty, yet it seems it was widely observed. Think of the rules of politeness and courtesy that everyone agrees on. Fasting was also seen as a social duty, since food was in short supply as winter wore on, and the weak and the sick had the first claim on what remained on hand.

As a boost to the fasting of the body, the church developed a richer spiritual fare, including celebration of the Eucharist every day. This practice began in Rome by the sixth century. Weekday Mass was only at designated “stations.” The pope would arrive on horseback at the station church. In those days, although the catechumene was already in eclipse, there were pre-baptismal activities at the station Masses: the giving of the Lord’s Prayer, prayers for the godparents, and constant references to baptism.
