Rev. Terry J. Steffens, Pastor

GATHERING IN FAITH, DISCOVERING COMMUNITY

Vision

Enthusiasm and Love of God and Neighbor to inspire and encourage interpersonal relationships in the St. Joseph Faith Community in order that an atmosphere of sharing our faith, time, talent, treasure and hospitality will expand the Kingdom of God.

Prayer

God of all peoples, how blessed we are to gather in faith at Eucharist, for it is in Your Word and Sacrament that we discover that we are the Community called the Body of Christ.

Our St. Joseph Parish Vision is filled with enthusiasm for loving God and neighbor because Your Kingdom expands, Creator Father, in an atmosphere of interpersonal relationships.

May we the members of St. Joseph Parish continue to grow in faith during our Pastoral Planning Process, so that our Parish Vision will be fulfilled as we discover that as parish we are Community in Christ.

Amen.

Sunday Readings Reflections of 6/12/2016Reading 1 2 Samuel 12:7-10, 13

In the first reading, Nathan tells King David a story that helps David to see the terrible sin he has committed. Because he wanted another man's wife for himself, David deliberately placed the soldier in the front line of battle where he would be killed. God had given David so many blessings and David now realizes he has sinned against God. David is filled with sorrow but Nathan assures him of God's forgiveness. Like David, any one of us can lose our perspective and let our desires rule us. We are not entitled to take what belongs to somebody else. Pray for God's help against this temptation.

Reading 2 Galatians 2:16, 19-21

Today's reading helps us to see the importance of faith. St. Paul says that having faith in Jesus is what makes us favorable in God's eyes. Paul tells us that his faith is so strong that it's as if he no longer lives, but Christ lives in him. People should be able to see God's love radiating in us. Those who are so intent on keeping the law that they don't reflect God's love are missing the point. Keeping the law is important, but the law alone will not help us to be saved.

Gospel Luke 7:36-8:3 or 7:36-50

The gospel reading tells the beautiful story of Jesus' response to the sinful woman. In her love for Jesus, she disregards the usual way guests are treated at a banquet. She bathes Jesus' feet first with her tears, then with precious ointment, and wipes them with her hair. Simon, the host of the banquet, shows Jesus none of the usual courtesies when he arrives. Moreover he condemns Jesus for associating with the woman who was a known sinner. In telling Simon a story about forgiving debts, Jesus praises the woman. She is forgiven much because of her great love. Jesus points out Simon's need for forgiveness—because of his lack of hospitality, his lack of respect for each of them, and his self-righteousness. The story is a powerful example of the relationship between forgiveness and love.

Pastor's Column

Dear Parishioners:

Every once-in-a-while we hear a News Story about the victim of a crime forgiving the perpetrator. What makes it News-worthy is how rare forgiveness stories are or that forgiveness stories are under-reported. I'm going to say that forgiveness stories are under-reported because they are not as sensational as some political or criminal News stories.

I suspect that many of us are forgiving because of Jesus in our lives which makes Holy Communion-faith-sense. And even for those who aren't Christian, I suspect that the Holy Spirit is working in them within their hearts to let mercy reign supreme in their lives. The Good News story of Jesus is for the world community of people because Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. And as the Lord's forgiveness reconciles us, we are to forgive one another as we are forgiven by our all-Loving God.

When people say that "love makes the world go round" it would clarify to say instead that "forgiveness makes the world go round". The greatest expression of God's Love in Christ through the Holy Spirit working within us is forgiveness. Another word to define forgiveness is acceptance from the standpoint that we accept one another with mercy. There is nothing more life-giving than a mercy/forgiveness Story. It may not make the radio News but it is the Good News of Salvation constantly in Holy Communion with us in Christ the Savior of the World.

Rejoicing in God's Mercy,

Fr. Terry

CSA

Many thanks to the following parishioners who pledged/paid to this year's CSA Appeal. We received $3600.00 this week in pledges and payments. Our total is $40,115.00.

Remember, our quota is $27,083.00. Anything we receive past this amount will come back 100% to our parish. Please prayerfully consider a pledge/payment this year.

Stewardship of Treasure Report

May 28th & 29th

Due to Memorial Day, the Stewardship of Treasure Report will be delayed by 1 week.

GOD'S PRESENCE

Realize above all that you are in God's presence . . . empty yourself completely and sit waiting, content with the grace of God, like a chick who tastes nothing and eats nothing but what its mother gives it.

SYNOD 2017

In the June 5th issue of the Northwest Indiana Catholic, Bishop Donald J. Hying addresses Catholic Social Teaching. Please take the time to read the bishop's column and reflect upon this question: "What emerging needs in our communities demand our attention and best efforts?"

To view Bishop Hying's video on Catholic Social Teaching, go to dcgary.org/synod.htm.

If you do not receive the Northwest Indiana Catholic, you can access the bishop's column at nwicatholic.com.

Catholic Charities Father's Day Collection Sunday, June 19th

Our Lord gave us the ultimate test for our salvation in Mathew 25:40 when he told us a heavenly dwelling was awaiting those who fed the hungry, clothed the naked and provided shelter for the homeless. The poor among us are the "face of Christ." Catholic Charities serves them on your behalf when you share your resources with a generous and loving donation. Remember, "whatever you do for the least of my brothers and sister, you do it for me!" Visit www.catholic-charities.org to learn about their programs or donate online.
