GATHERING IN FAITH, DISCOVERING COMMUNITY

Vision

Enthusiasm and Love of God and Neighbor to inspire and encourage interpersonal relationships in the St. Joseph Faith Community in order that an atmosphere of sharing our faith, time, talent, treasure and hospitality will expand the Kingdom of God.

Prayer

God of all peoples, how blessed we are to gather in faith at Eucharist, for it is in Your Word and Sacrament that we discover that we are the Community called the Body of Christ.

Our St. Joseph Parish Vision is filled with enthusiasm for loving God and neighbor because Your Kingdom expands, Creator Father, in an atmosphere of interpersonal relationships.

May we the members of St. Joseph Parish continue to grow in faith during our Pastoral Planning Process, so that our Parish Vision will be fulfilled as we discover that as parish we are Community in Christ.

Amen.

Welcome, New Parishioners

Human Life Action

Coming next week June 23-24 (or today) Human Life Action presents “Take Action Sunday”! Our parish will conduct a “Take Action Sunday” on important pro-life legislation: The Conscience Protection Act. You will have an opportunity to respond to a federal legislative action alert to protect human life and freedom of conscience. You can do so at any time by e-mail or your Smart Phone by visiting HumanLifeAction.org and follow the prompts. The proper message is provided by the Human Life Action of the NCHLA and will automatically be sent to our Representative Pete Visclosky and Senators Joe Donnelly and Todd Young. Thank you for taking action in support of life!

Our Father Knows What’s Best

Whenever life just seems unfair,
 And things don’t go your way,
 Don’t choose to shout and stomp about,
 Instead, begin to pray.
 For our Father always wants to hear,
 All things we care about,
 Each trial and temptation.
 Each worry and each doubt.

When you talk to Him for a little while,
 You’ll find hope and peace and rest,
 And you’ll realize, tho’life seems hard,
 Our Father knows what’s best.

Connie J. Kirby

*You listen, Lord, to the needs of the poor, You encourage them
 and hear their prayers.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

At the heart of today's solemnity is a eucharistic procession, held in many parishes, that calls to mind the procession of Holy Thursday, yet has a purpose different from the somber adoration in the night watch. In the late Middle Ages, a procession through the city with the Blessed Sacrament was an occasion of heartfelt joy and great emotion. In a time when people seldom approached the altar to receive Holy Communion, the procession through the streets, past homes and workplaces, was a vibrant reminder that Christ was with them as a dear companion and guide. Every year on this day, a joyful procession winds through the streets of Rome from the Lateran cathedral. A few years ago, Pope John Paul II, deeply moved at the sight of the throng accompanying the sacred host, said that we ought to feel profoundly united with the faithful everywhere in the world at such a moment. "Before our mind's eye all the Churches of the world, from East to West, from North to South, are present." Originally this feast was on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday, but after the calendar reform of 1970, its title was expanded from "Corpus Christi" to "The Body and Blood of Christ" and in the United States it was moved to the Sunday after Trinity Sunday. Even though Easter season ended two weeks ago, this beautiful feast is aglow with Easter light.
