GATHERING IN FAITH, DISCOVERING COMMUNITY

Vision

Enthusiasm and Love of God and Neighbor to inspire and encourage interpersonal relationships in the St. Joseph Faith Community in order that an atmosphere of sharing our faith, time, talent, treasure and hospitality will expand the Kingdom of God.

Prayer

God of all peoples, how blessed we are to gather in faith at Eucharist, for it is in Your Word and Sacrament that we discover that we are the Community called the Body of Christ.

Our St. Joseph Parish Vision is filled with enthusiasm for loving God and neighbor because Your Kingdom expands, Creator Father, in an atmosphere of interpersonal relationships.

May we the members of St. Joseph Parish continue to grow in faith during our Pastoral Planning Process, so that our Parish Vision will be fulfilled as we discover that as parish we are Community in Christ.

Amen.

Sunday Readings Reflections of 6/26/2016

Reading 1 1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21
 Today we hear the dramatic story of the prophet Elijah appointing his successor. At God's command, Elijah chooses Elisha to take his place. Elijah throws his cloak, the symbol of his prophet's vocation, over Elisha's shoulders. With no questions asked, Elisha immediately says farewell to his family and destroys his oxen and plow. He drops everything to follow God's call.

Reading 2 Galatians 5:1, 13-18
 When Elisha gave up everything to do God's will, he must have felt truly free. In our second reading, Paul reminds the Galatians that Christians have been called to live in freedom. Those who have accepted Christ follow his example of love. Those who listen to the "flesh" whatever urges them to act against God's will are still slaves. They act against their own best interests when they listen to the voice of selfishness.

Gospel Luke 9:51-62
 Jesus is on his way to Jerusalem. He is preparing himself to face suffering and death. He forgives the Samaritans who refuse to welcome him, showing his disciples how to behave toward their enemies. He then responds to three different people who want to follow him. Does he say, "Come with me and all will be well?" Not at all. Jesus tells them right up front that the cost of becoming his disciple is high. That cost may include giving up home, family, and means of income.

Pastor’s Column

Dear Parishioners:

Tree roots are an intricate network under the ground that bring water to the trees and supports the tree structures above the ground. What is fascinating about tree roots is how they can spread out many feet from the trees. Tree roots are not isolated under a particular tree but rather are all over the place under the ground.

God’s Love is rooted within our hearts through Christ the Savior and like tree roots, God’s Love is all over the place in our lives and in the lives of others. God’s Love is an eternal life/love network of Oneness with us that “waters” us with mercy and supports us with risen life. Thus, we can live life continually branching out in new directions with faith in God’s deep root system within us thanks to our Holy Communion with Jesus and one another.

As members of the One Body of Christ, we are networking together with others above ground in a root system that is intricately provided for by God’s constant Love. A well-rooted faith in God brings us to be well-rooted with one another. The Structure of the Kingdom of God has it’s root foundation in God’s Saving Love in Christ. To live our Holy Communion with Christ is to live our Holy Communion with each other. It is the network of the Communion of Saints that we are all called to already in our earthly journey.

Tree roots are profound in how they grow in many directions. God’s Love is eternally profound because God’s roots of Oneness with us in Christ are constantly growing in many directions within us, encouraging us to be more expansive in our love for one another.

In God’s Communing Love.

Fr. Terry

Focolare Movement, “Mariapolis” Retreat

Speaking to the Focolare in April 2016, Pope Francis said, “They go where there isn’t hope, and they do things to make a forest of the desert. Life is like that. There are many deserts in the cities, deserts in people’s lives who don’t have a future, because there’s always prejudices, fears. These people live and die in the desert of the cities. You perform a miracle with your work of change the desert into a forest. Go forward that way.”

The Mariapolis: a summer retreat sponsored by the Focolare, for individuals and families!

- Looking for a unique experience this summer in a family atmosphere?
- One where you come away rested and enriched?
- In community with people and a common desire for spiritual growth?
- With programs for children, teens and adults plus nursery facilities?

The Mariapolis may be for you! Centered on putting the Gospel into practice and witnessing how unity lived as Jesus wants (Father may they all be one, John 17:21) can transform the world.

Join us for this 4 day gathering from July 14-18 at Valparaiso University in Valparaiso, Indiana. To find out more about the Focolare go to www.focolare.org or to register go to register.focolare.us (choose the option Midwest).

A highlight of this year’s program: Bishop Donald Hying will celebrate Mass on Sunday, July 17 at 4:00pm.

SYNOD 2017

In the June 19th issue of the Northwest Indiana Catholic, Bishop Donald J. Hying writes about marriage and family. Please take the time to read the bishop’s column and reflect upon this question: “How do we support married couples and families, not only in the understanding and practice of their faith, but also in order to grow in love, generosity, respect and stability?”

To view Bishop Hying’s video on Marriage and Family, go to dcgary.org/synod.htm.

If you do not receive the Northwest Indiana Catholic, you can access the bishop’s column at nwcatholic.com.

Deanery Meeting on Synod, CSA & Parish Clustering

Everyone is welcome to attend informational sessions in the deaneries to explain the Synod, Catholic Services Appeal, and Parish Clustering. The purpose is to clarify the meaning and importance of these three areas. It would also be a forum which would allow those in attendance to ask question and to voice concerns.

Our deanery, the Southlake Deanery, will meet on Tuesday, July 12th at Our Lady of Consolation in Merrillville from 7 to 8:30pm

Everyone is welcome to attend.
