GATHERING IN FAITH, DISCOVERING COMMUNITY

Vision

Enthusiasm and Love of God and Neighbor to inspire and encourage interpersonal relationships in the St. Joseph Faith Community in order that an atmosphere of sharing our faith, time, talent, treasure and hospitality will expand the Kingdom of God.

Prayer

God of all peoples, how blessed we are to gather in faith at Eucharist, for it is in Your Word and Sacrament that we discover that we are the Community called the Body of Christ.

Our St. Joseph Parish Vision is filled with enthusiasm for loving God and neighbor because Your Kingdom expands, Creator Father, in an atmosphere of interpersonal relationships.

May we the members of St. Joseph Parish continue to grow in faith during our Pastoral Planning Process, so that our Parish Vision will be fulfilled as we discover that as parish we are Community in Christ.

Amen.

Sunday Readings Reflections of 10/11/15Reading 1 Wisdom 7:7-11

If one person prays to win the lottery and another person prays for wisdom, which do you think has offered the most meaningful prayer? The author of this reading sees clearly that wisdom is more desirable than riches. It is also to be valued above power, health, and beauty. Wisdom enables us to keep our priorities straight. It helps us to see things from God's point of view.

Sometimes we hesitate to seek the things of God because it might mean we have to lose the things of earth. But when we seek God and God's kingdom first, everything else of true value will follow.

Reading 2 Hebrews 4:12-13

A two-edged sword is a very powerful symbol. When we picture God's word as a sharp sword, we want to sit up and pay attention to the reading. The inspired author teaches us that this sword can cut right to the human heart. It judges our thoughts and decisions. It saves those who listen to it and requires an accounting from those who ignore it. The symbol of the sword reminds us that God's word is alive and active. It is never a word that is lifeless or without meaning in our daily lives. It is always capable of changing us if we let it.

Gospel Mark 10:17-27

The rich young man in this story is like a mountain climber who has almost reached the summit. But the final stretch will be more difficult than the distance he has already come. He comes to seek wisdom from Jesus about how to achieve everlasting life. He assures the Good Teacher that he has kept the commandments since he was a child. Jesus looks at him with love and challenges him to do one thing more. If he wants to reach the summit of treasure in heaven, the young man must sell his possessions and follow Jesus. This he cannot do. So he goes away sad.

Jesus assures his disciples that entering the kingdom of God is no easy matter. Those who are attached to their possessions will have a more difficult time. However, those who rely on God to achieve the impossible can do all good things.

Pastor's Column

Dear Parishioners:

In Jesus, the fuel for love is forgiveness. The depth of God's Love revealed in His Son, Jesus, is corner-stoned with forgiveness. There is no way to water down this forgiveness issue in Christ.

Each of us has sin stories we could tell but also, each of us has forgiven stories we could tell. Wouldn't it be a joy to make the connection between love stories and forgiveness stories? Some of the most profoundly loving moments in our lives are forgiveness moments. Forgiveness is the way of oneness with God and neighbors and to proclaim God's Love is to proclaim God is Forgiveness.

Sometimes people say that "love makes the world go round". In Christ Jesus, we can more specifically say that "Forgiveness makes the world go round". Perhaps some of the depressed people in our world would be less depressed if they were more forgiving? As is the case with growth in Love, there is room for us to continually grow in the ways of Christ's forgiveness since it is the true tell-tale of Holy Communion with Christ.

Rejoicing in God's Forgiveness,

Fr. Terry
