

PASTOR'S COLUMN—MAY 21, 2012

Dear Parishioners:

As I write this Column, the weather is so beautiful, teeming with new life. It is pretty much a summary of what I am experiencing at St. Joseph's. New life is percolating within me thanks to the liberation from anger that I am embracing in the kindness of Jesus. I am so grateful for this new-found freedom as one of God's children.

I ask for your continued prayerful support as I embrace this new normal for me. And I pray for you as my people, my flock that I am privileged to serve, that we together grow in the freedom of Christ's kindness. I am grateful to be your pastor. Alleluia!

In Christ's Love,

Fr. Terry
