

PASTOR'S COLUMN—DECEMBER 3, 2012

Dear Parishioners:

Jesus tells us we must become child-like in order to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. We need to admit that we are not so sophisticated when we face our beloved Jesus. Humbling down before Jesus is our baptismal call as children of God. Being in Jesus' presence is child-likeness such that we are silent before our Lord. As God's children, we need to listen attentively in silence to our beloved Savior.

The Kingdom of God is about being in God's presence, period! Child-likeness is humbling down before our Lord Jesus and listening to Him in silence. By this attentive listening approach to Jesus, we will live Holy Communion with Christ more faithfully.

Loving you in Christ,

Fr. Terry
